

A procedure has been established for productions who wish to travel Canadians (excluding those in NFLD and PEI) and Temporary Foreign Workers employed on productions in Nova Scotia. Productions or individuals can apply. Please note the individual will receive an email confirmation that their entry has been approved. They will need to have this letter with them at the border.

The application process is as follows:

Send an email to: NSEconomy@novascotia.ca

Subject Line: Travel for Employed Canadian(s) OR Temporary Foreign Worker(s) on a Film and Television Production

We, (production company) are requesting entry into Nova Scotia for the following individual(s) employed to work on (production name). Filming will begin (date).

List of employed individuals:

Full Name	Departure City & Information	Arrival Information	Contact Info: Phone & Email

(Production name) fully understands the restrictions in place under the Public Health Order of Nova Scotia. We have read and can confirm that our production plan adheres to the guidelines authored by Screen Nova Scotia "COVID-19 Related Health & Safety Guidelines for the Screen Industry". (Production name) understands that everyone who is allowed to travel into Nova Scotia from outside Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island or Newfoundland and Labrador into Nova Scotia (including those travelling through Nova Scotia to another destination) must self-isolate for 14 days when they arrive in Nova Scotia, or for the duration of their stay if it's less than 14 days.

In addition, below is a detailed list of what you could include in this email as well as in a package to arm employed film and television workers as they enter Nova Scotia. Please note that this is only a guide and is not exhaustive.

- A letter of employment for the entrant on a production filming in Nova Scotia. Please include the length and terms of the entrant's employment contract.

SCREEN NOVA SCOTIA

- Confirmation that the employer is open for business. CBSA will look at each employee individually and whether their individual offer of employment stands.
- Confirmation that Nova Scotia is open for business. There is a letter on Screen Nova Scotia's website confirming that film and television production can operate at full capacity. It can be downloaded and included for these purposes.
- Commitment by the employer that the entrant will be paid during their 14 day quarantine period and that they will be employed after the 14 day quarantine period is complete through to the end of their contract.
- That the employer will not put at risk the safety of Nova Scotians by requesting the entrant leave their 14 day quarantine early, for any reason.
- How they intend to support the entrant while they are in quarantine (safe transportation including appropriate PPE, grocery drop-offs, necessities, etc.)
- Who will be responsible for providing for the entrant while they are in a 14 day quarantine.
- Hotel or alternative reservations, confirming where the 14 day quarantine will take place.
- While in their place of quarantine, the individual will have a separate room and will not be in contact with any vulnerable individuals in their location of quarantine.
